

Baruch College Masters Program

Baruch College Masters Program - Stop Video. Zicklin's Master's degree programs offer in-depth study across a range of areas. When you graduate with an MS, you will leave with specialized knowledge of the current practices, issues, and innovations in your field. The MS is a focused degree and usually requires between 30 and 42 credits. Graduate Education at Baruch. A senior college of The City University of New York (CUNY), Baruch College has a long tradition of excellence in graduate education, dating back to the establishment of its first MBA program in 1920 and continuing today with programs that are recognized for their quality, innovation, and superiority. CUNY Bernard M Baruch College offers 43 graduate degree programs - 39 Master's, 2 Post-bachelor's, 2 Post-master's. The average tuition & fees for graduate programs are $10,810 for New York residents and $19,680 for others in academic year 2017-2018. Home. Baruch College, located in Manhattan, New York City is one of ten senior colleges of The City University of New York. Baruch offers undergraduate and graduate studies through its three schools: Zicklin School of Business; Weissman School of Arts and Sciences; and the School of Public Affairs.